

Clifford (Marquis) Gibbs

My definition of art is to manipulate various dry mediums on paper. This gives someone the ability to manipulate many feelings, emotions, or even simply to highlight an Artist's skills. My favorite drawings are the Lil Wayne picture and the half faced owl. I think both of these highlights my ability to attempt to capture as many details as I can, this also pushes me to sharpen my skills.

